the congregation has divided into two factions, and both are at swords' points with each other It is said that the trouble started Sept. 13, when several new mem-bers were admitted into the church. DEMOCRATIC STAMPEDE

WORKERS FLOCKING TO THE SOUND. MONEY ORGANIZATION.

Half the Taggart Administration Flops Over-How Chairman Pickens Sizes Up the Indiana Situation.

A regular stampede of Democratic ward workers and hustlers has begun from the Popocratic organization to the soundmoney Democracy during the past two or three days. The Popocratic managers realize this fact thoroughly, and declare that J. L. Keach is taking their men from them because the sound-money organization has money. They were so worked up about it yesterday that they were making loud threats of having Keach arrested on the charge of bribery, but they could find no ground whatever upon which to make such a charge, and thought better of their intention. Yet they claim they are convinced that the National Democrats are tampering with their organization, and are very much alarmed over the situation.

The plain truth is that the workers in the wards and the men who hustle for votes are not fools. They have begun to realize the fact that with such leaders as J. L. Keach, Sterling Holt, John R. Wilson, Samuel Murray, and, in fact, practically all the men who have had anything to do with leading the Democratic organization and county affairs, active in the sound-money organization, they will control Democratic affairs in Marion county for a long time after this election is over, and there is a rush to get on the wagon before the procession finally starts. They understand perfectly well that the case is hopeless in Marion county, and believe they might as well identify themselves with the men who will control the organization in the future. "It is impossible to hold them," was the workers who has cast his fortune with the Popocratic organization and means to stick out another week, anyhow. "The boys understand as well as you or I do that after this campaign we shall never hear anything D. H. Baldwin & Co., more of Cooper, Myers, Bridges, Stuart, Rochford or any of the rest of these fools who are enjoying a temporary sort of ascendency in the organization. They see James Keach and Holt and the rest of the fellows they have been accustomed to taking orders from on the other side of the line, and the devil and all his imps could not hold them on this side, particularly when they know that these fellows have the stuff to do business with. We have been working hard, and are still working hard, to patch up the organization for elec-tion day work, and if we can get enough reliable men to serve as judges, clerks, sheriffs, challengers and book-holders we shall be well satisfied to let it go at that, without making any effort to hustle for votes, as we have done heretofore. there at the committee rooms Bridges and Myers and that gang eye us with daggers drawn and hate the ground we walk on. They have been bolters and traitors all their lives, but we are giving them an ob-ject lesson in party regularity that ought to do them a heap of good. We shall stay with the thing now until after election day, and then you will see us getting to-gether with Keach and Holt and those fel> us solid to a man in electing Taggart as DESERTIONS EVERY DAY. Half the City Administration Pulling

> Away from Bryan. The leaders of the "push" have put a rather hard test upon the loyalty of Mayor Thomas Taggart. They have been objecting fiercely to his interference with the work of the county committee, and the easy fashion in which he has been dropping into the committee rooms and bossing Chairman Rocheford while he was making up the list of election officers has been gall and wormwood to Charley Cooper, Smith Meyers, Charley Bridges, Romus Stuart and the rest of the gang. They went to Taggart a few days ago and demanded that the gold Democrats holding positions in the city administrations be weeded out forthwith. They specified Richard Herrick, clerk of the Board of Safety; Bartholomew Parker, clerk of the Board of Public Works; Will Hughes, chief of the Assessment Bureau; Arthur and Charles Adams, of the controller's office, and Will Ripley, clerk of the Board of Health. Mr. questioned one of these gentlemen as to Taggart blandly replied that he had not how he was going to vote this time, but he took it for granted that they were going to vote with the party. At any rate, he knew them to be Democrats from away back, and thought that was sufficient. was not sufficient, however, to satisfy the "push," and there is loud clamoring that

Taggart is playing false.

This is increased by the fact that Will Hughes has handed in his resignation as a member of the Popocratic county com-mittee, making the twenty-fourth volunary resignation that has come in during ne last two weeks. Speaking of resignations, a member of the Popocratic county committee who is for gold tells an interesting story of his own effort to resign. He went to his ward com-mitteeman and said: "I do not feel that I can serve longer on the committee. I was able to stick it out until the Populist deal, but now I am so thoroughly out o harmony with the campaign that I feel i "Oh, that's all right," replied the ward committeeman. "You've got lots of company. Just keep your mouth shut and go about your business, and let it go at that."

TEXAS FOR M'KINLEY. Glowing Reports Brought from that

State by D. H. Jenkins. D. H. Jenkins, publisher of the Jersey Bulletin, who has just returned from Texas, where he has been attending the State fair, predicts that Texas will give a large majority for McKinley. While in the South he made particular investigation concerning politics and reports that the feeling in favor of McKinley is predominently strong throughout the State.

"I was very much surprised at the sentiment among the ex-Confederate soldiers' said he. "I found that in talking to not less than fifty of them, which is a very low estimate of the number, there were just four who were not going to vote for McKinley. Three of these four are in politics and the other one gave as his reason Dent's Famous Men's Gloves-$1.50, that he did not want to vote with the $1.75, $2. $2.25 and $2.50-the favorite | 'niggers.' The negro vote is solid for Mc-Kinley. A candidate on the Democratic State ticket told me at Fort Worth that while he thought Bryan might carry the State the Democrats would lose the State

While en route to Texas from St. Louis I met eight cattlemen. One of the party told me that he had been a Democrat al his life, as has been his brother, but both are going to vote for McKinley this time. Seven out of those eight cattlemen I found to be McKinley Democrats. At Denison, Tex., I talked to three men who have been The Hebrew Church near Eddy street, known as the Congregation of the Kesses Israel, is having considerable trouble, as the congregation has divided into the Kesses Israel, is having considerable trouble, as the congregation has divided into the Kesses Israel, is having considerable trouble, as the congregation has divided into the Kesses Israel, is having considerable trouble, as the proprietor of a large wholesage grocery house and all the employes in his constant of the Kesses Israel, is having considerable trouble, as establishment are going to vote for McKin-ley. I found the same state of affairs at > veston, which were the principal towns that "Governor Culberson, Democratic, is running for guberanatorial honors again, The other day he jumped on Buckner in a speech and it is hurting him and the State Democratic ticket very much. Popocrats are certainly losing ground in Texas very fast. Ex-Treasurer J. N. Huston, who is now in Dallas working very hard for the Republican party, is very confident of success. He said to me, 'When you get back to Indianapolis tell the Journal and the boys that we will certainly carry Texas."

"I have never in any campaign seen the political situations as much one-sided fa-voring Republicanism as I did in the towns I visited. One of the cattlemen from St.

among the 1,100 cattlemen in the stockyards at Chicago and $25 were for McKinley."

OVER 40,000 GOLD DEMOCRATS.

That Many in Indiana Who Will Not Support Bryan. The National Democrats of Indiana feel greatly encouraged over the progress their campaign has made within the last week. As the fight nears a close any number of Democratic business men who have heretofore preserved silence are now declaring their intention to oppose Bryan. While the leaders of the sound-money forces have had reason to believe all along that these men were with them, yet they feel much themselves. Chairman Pickens said yes-terday that he now felt sure that the number of Democrats in Indiana declining to support Bryan would reach at least 40,000 and possibly 60,000. John R. Wilson, who has been campaigning for the Palmer and Buckner ticket throughout the northern part of the State, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Wilson is one of the shrewdest political observers in the State, though usually in-clined to be a bit pessimistic. "I feel con-vinced," said he, "that Bryan will lose the state by a heavy majority. One can usual ell during the last two weeks of a camgn how the trend of public opinion is and it seems to me that it is so heavily against Bryan as to make his case hopeless in Indiana. Yet the Popocratic national committee, I know, has strong hopes of carrying Indiana and Michigan, and all the surplus resources at its command have been divided between these two States in

BRYANITES THROW STONES. Seriously Injuring John Hicks Near

Ben Davis. Another incident illustrating the outrageous tactics to which the desperate Bryanites are resorting in these last days of the campaign happened near Ben Davis last night, when a gang of hoodlums threw stones at a large party of farmers , who were driving from Bridgeport to Ben Davis to attend a Republican meeting. John Hicks, of the party, was struck in the head with a stone and so seriously injured that his friends had to turn back and take him to his home. The party on whom this outrageous attack was made was composed of members of the Bridgeport McKinley Club and the glee club of that place. The mem-bers of the party were driving to Ben remark made yesterday by one of the old Davis in several large farm wagons. The names of the men who threw the stones are known and they will be arrested. Owing to this disgraceful interference the Bridgeport farmers were late in arriving at Ben Davis, where great indignation was expressed when the facts became known. If the men who were guilty could have been found they would have suffered severely. The stone throwers hid themselves in a cornfield.

The meeting at Ben Davis was very successful notwithstanding this unpleasant incident. Speeches were made by D. B. Shideler and Merrill Moores.

TO SAVE THE COUNTY TICKET.

Last Desperate Effort of the Popo cratic Managers. While the Popocratic managers have given up all hope of accomplishing anything for their national or State tickets in Marion county, the fact that the soundmoney Democrats show some disposition to vote the Popocratic county ticket has emboldened them to believe that possibly it, or a part of it, can be saved out of the The National Democrats, in sending out sample ballots, have marked them for these nominees. It has therefore been decided by the Popocratic managers to devote the whole of the $25,000 slice of Chairman Jones's corruption fund allotted to Marion county from the boodle contributed by the silver barons to an effort to save the county ticket. Already there are evidences of money spent for the exclusive benefit of lows without any trouble at all. You may have the best of us this time, but by next year you will have us all to fight just as you have had heretofore, and you will find the county ticket, and at least three stances are known where members of the county committee who intended to resign because they were for gold, have been begged to remain on and do what they could for the county ticket, even though they could not vote for Bryan.

> WILL VOTE FOR M'KINLEY. M. O'Counor Thinks Most of Gold Democrats Will Do Likewise. M. O'Connor, wholesale grocer on South Meridian street, who has always been a Democrat, will vote for McKinley this campaign. Said he to a Journal reporter, who called on him yesterday: "I have always Been a Democrat, but McKinley will get my vote this time. I turned on the free-silver question. I don't think the tariff will cut much figure, because we have to have it anyway for revbut free silver would mean demoralization to the business interests of this country. I think McKinley's chances are splendid, and I have no doubt but he will carry Indiana. Bryan may carry a few States in the West through the votes of mine owners, but I don't think he will carry any States east of the Mississippi He gained nothing by his speeches in the East—in fact, he lost—and he accomplished nothing by his speeches through here. He is blustering and makes lots of fuss in speaking, but he lacks argument; so his speeches count for nothing. I don't think Palmer will get a very large vote, but what he does get will be taken from the Popocratic party's support. I know a number of Democrats in this city who have stated that they will vote for Palmer, but the majority of Democrats, with the true interests of their country at heart, will vote for McKinley."

Beveridge to Answer Altgeld.

The Marquette Club, of Chicago, the largest Republican political organization in the United States, has invited Albert J. Beveridge to answer Governor Altgeld's New York speech. The meeting will be held in the Auditorium on next Thursday night, and will be the close of the Chicago campaign in the central district of the city.

The issue raised by Governor Altgeld in his New York speech is the national question of federal government, which effects the whole country as well as Chicago. The Sound-money Glee Club, of this city, has been invited to accompany Mr. Beveridge, and it is very probable that they will go.

A Lie Involving Parry Cart Company. D. M. Parry, president of the Parry Cart Company, yesterday denounced as entirely false and groundless a story printed in a German paper to the effect that the company's employes had demanded gold in payment of their wages, and, failing to get it, had torn down the McKinley pictures and flags in the shop. He says no such demand has been made and no pictures have been

Last night the Jones Republican Club, made up of colored voters in the Eighth precinct of the Twelfth ward, was ormade up of colored voters in the Eighth precinct of the Twelfth ward, was organized with a membership of seventy-five. The meeting was held on Willard street. The following officers were elected: President, David Harding; vice president, Ell Artis; secretary, Oscar Perkins; treasurer, H. C. Mullen, Speeches were made by Gabriel Jones, William Porter and others. Rev. David L. Mackenzie has just returned from a trip through Tennessee and other Southern States, where he found great interest being taken in the coming election. Everywhere he found a surprising amount of sound-money sentiment. Dr. Mackenzie says that he was especially surprised to learn that Democrats of the old line are coming out for sound money by the hundred. Bryan's silver talk does not seem to appeal to Southerners, and they are also bitterly opposed to the platform, urging that it is unpatriotic and revolution-ary. From his observations Dr. Mackenzie says that the vote for the cause of sound money will be very large.

DEBS FOR U.S. SENATOR

POPULISTS WILL SUPPORT HIM IF THEY GAIN CONTROL.

Rankin Has Been Abandoned for the Famous Fugene V .- Fifteen Populists on Legislative Ticket.

There are fifteen original, hide-bound Populists among the fusion nominees for the Legislature, and if, by any mischance, the Popocrats should get control of the Legislature, they would get it by virtue of the election of these Populists, and they would hold the balance of power. Not one of these Populists has pledged himself to any candidate for the Senate and they are seriously figuring upon controlling this election in case they hold this balance of A few days ago Morton C. Rankin, of Terre Haute, was spoken of as the man they would put forward for Senator, but since then the Populists of Rankin's own county of Vigo have spoken and their candidate is no less a personage than Eugene Debs, of A. R. U. fame. Debs also resides at Terre Haute, and the Populist party there is made up of his personal following. Their declaration takes Rankin out of the race, and it was also be taken as years. Their declaration takes Kankin out of the race, and it may also be taken as proof that Debs has serious designs upon the succession to Voorhees. Nothing would suit his picturesque ambition better than to sit in the United States Senate and hurl hot words at the men he has hated so long and so hard. The difficulty of the undertaking and the daring of it only add to its charm for him. harm for him.

If the fifteen Populists indorsed by the Popocratic organization should thus get ontrol of the Legislature they would deadlock it to the end in order to attain this desire and would hold up all other legislation for the accomplishment of this one purpose of putting the man who tied up the commerce of the country two years ago

Big National Event to Be Held Here

A call was issued from Chicago yesterday for the next annual meeting of the Farmers' National Congress, to be held in this city Nov. 10 to 13. The regular delegates from each State are one from each congressional district and two at large, appointed by the Governor of the State. The Governors of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Michigan have appointed five thousand associate delegates, having all the privileges of the congress except voting. The convention with probably be the largest gathering of representative agriculturists ever convened in the United States, if not in the world. It is a nonpolitical, open order. Raliroads have made reduced rates.

He Came with Bryan's Circus. Thomas Moran was arrested yesterday on a charge of petty larceny. He came on the day that Popocrat Bryan's circus arrived and has been "laying around" ever ince. He admits having stolen two valises from Harry Moran's saloon, on South Illinois street. One of them contained the baseball uniform of McCarthy, the Indian-

These symptoms, unless cured, will develop into typhoid, malarial or intermittent fever. It is very seldom that all the above symptoms appear in one person.
